- Amber bead necklaces/Taonga: Amber necklaces are popular, but there have been incidents of children aspirating them. A necklace can pose two potential hazards: strangulation and choking.

Our policy is to remove all necklaces and amber beads before children go to sleep. We do respect families who have pounamu/taonga and these will be treated with care and placed in a named container while the child is sleeping.

Parent disclaimer:

My child's pounamu is to be removed by staff while my child is sleeping. I understand that in the unfortunate event of any injury or strangulation caused to my child by wearing her/his pounamu/necklace, the Centre will not be held accountable or liable.
